"Why aren't they all contented like me?"

Here's the boy of varied careers and many talents. From the meekest Freshman he has risen to the most distinguished position, President of the Student Body, and he has proved to be one of the best L. H. S. has ever had! Bradley is one of whom his classmates are especially proud. We expect great things of you, Tyree.

MARGARET ANNE MORELAND

Sponsor Burke Debating Society '27; Pres. English A '28; Chorus '28; Pres. Class '29; Executive Committee '30; Crystal Staff '30; Hall of Fame '30; Senior Play '30.

"Not too short and not too tall, cute and sweet and loved by all."

Margaret Anne has been with us since we were in the third grade. Though she is small in stature her share in school activities has always been a large one. Her accomplishments and versatility have made her a valuable and beloved member to all her classmates.

CHARLES STRAUB

Football '28, '29, (C) '30; Baseball '27, '30; Basketball '29, '30; Monogram Club, '27, '30, (Pres.) '30; Crystal Staff '30; Senior Play '30.

"A good old pal in every way,
One not found every day."

"Charlie" is exactly that—everybody's friend. His career as a football player has been brilliant, to say nothing of baseball. His ready smile and attractive personality have endeared him in the hearts of his classmates. May Dame Fortune never send misfortune to you in her place, "Charlie."

:: :: ::

GATEWOOD DUNLAP

Hall of Fame '30; Ad Committee for Senior Play '30.

"Jolly, yet serious, fun loving, yet sincere."

"Gateleg" came into our midst late, but landed with a splash. From the minute we saw her we knew she was a good sport and plenty of fun. And as for her Ford, why she's almost run the school bus out of business. She'll be a success anywhere.

:: :: ::

RADA MOORE

Chorus '27, '28.

"A maid never bold in spirits, still and quiet."

Rada is everybody's friend. Her sunny smile gives one a glimpse of her sunny disposition which enables her to meet and conquer all problems with unfailing determination and good humor. Good-bye and good luck, Rada!

JULIA DESHA

Chorus '27, '28; Echo Staff '27, '29, Editor-in-Chief '30; Basketball '27, '28; Executive Committee '29; Pres. Class '27; Hall of Fame '30.

"My duty is done, my conscience is clear."

This saying has truly been carried out by Julia in L. H. S. Always willing to assume the hardest roles of scholastic achievements, Julia should be complimented upon her ability to put out a real successful Echo. As "most dependable" girl, Julia deserves all credit for being faithful to the cause of L. H. S. Farewell, and may you have luck in R. M. W. C.

OLIVER GILLOCK

Executive Committee '30; Manager Baseball '30; Business Manager Echo '30; Senior Play '30; Secretary Class '30.

"I work for knowledge, not for notoriety."

As a scholar and a leader Oliver has been an asset to the Class of '30. Determination and ability have made him most outstanding during his High School career. His unselfish work with the Executive Committee was especially noteworthy. The Class of '30 expects great things of you, Oliver.

RESSIE IRVIN

"The mildest manner, the gentlest heart."

We all know "Res," the girl with the perpetual smile. Her amiable nature has won her many friends. Although "Res" has only been with us two years she has made herself valuable by her spirit and accommodating ways. Good luck to you always, Ressie.

LAURA LACKEY

Library Committee '26, '28; Basketball '27, '30; Manager Basketball '29; Chorus '27, '28; Pres. Glee Club '29; Senior Play '30; Monogram Club '30.

"Her place is with merriment and gay good times."

No one in L. H. S. possesses as much wit and such an abundance of wise cracks as Laura. No one has such good humor and sunny smiles as Laura. "Lackey," we all wish you good luck and may you always be the sport that you are now.

WOODROW BARGER

Senior Play '30.

"Valuable things come only in small packages."

"Is Za-at so. Well." Don't get excited, it's just Chipmonk's usual line. This line and "Chip's" never failing smart remarks have made him one of the distinct "characters" of the Senior Class. It is with many regrets that we say good-bye.

:: :: ::

FRANCES MORRIS

Secretary Class '27; Executive Committee '27; Monogram Club '29, '30; Anne Smith Scholarship '27; Chorus '27, '28; Echo Staff '28, '30; Vice-President Class '28; Basketball '27, '30, Captain '30; Hall of Fame '30; Crystal Staff '30; Senior Play '30.

"A girl to laugh, a girl to smile,
Is a girl that's always worthwhile."

Frances has always been a diligent worker. As a member of the Echo and Crystal Staffs she has done her work well. We do not know her plans for the future, but we are sure she will find success.

:: :: ::

TEMPLETON FAUBER

Senior Play '28, '30; Crystal Staff '30.

"No man is born without faults."

The Class of '30 is sorry to lose Templeton. He goes about his work persistently and efficiently. We wish you the best of luck in any business in which you may enter.

:: :: ::

BESSIE HOGE DAVIDSON

Secretary Class '28; Echo Staff '30; Senior Play '30; President Class '30.

"If I chance to talk a little wild, forgive me."

Betty has been with us from the time there was a Class of '30—way back in the Grammar School. She may look quiet and meek to those who just don't know, but she's right there. They say she can feed you as fast a line as any on the market.

MARTHA ISABELLE DONALD

Chorus '27, '28; Hall of Fame '29, '30; Senior Play '30.

"Ain't life grand."

Seldom is such wit, beauty, and personality found in one small person. Is there any wonder that the whole school regrets to say good-bye? May misfortune always chase you and never catch up with you, Isabelle.

COBURN BLACK

"A man of few words and many thoughts."

Although Coburn did not join our ranks until we were Seniors, he has proved a very useful member of the class. Good-bye and good luck, Coburn.

ALICE LOUISE STEIDTMAN

Treasurer Class '27; Chorus '28; President English B '28; Editor-in-Chief Crystal '30; Senior Play '30

"Fair of face, heart, and mind,
In her a true friend you'll find."

Alice fitted herself nicely in our class when we were in the fifth grade and there she stayed. Besides distinguishing herself this year as editor of the Crystal, she has made herself valuable by her pleasing ways, manner, and looks. May four-leaf clovers always grow in your path, Alice.

HUNTER McCLUNG

Football '28, '30; Monogram Club '30; Crystal Staff '29, '30; Senior Play '30.

"Don't do today what you can put off until tomorrow."

Everybody knows Hunter—lazy, but a good friend, and always the gentleman. His achievements show plainly that his ability has not been hindered by laziness, as it may sometimes appear. May you always be as good natured and the good sport that you are now.

MILDRED NICELY

Senior Play '30.

"Gentle in manner, firm in reality."

Mildred has, in her quiet way, endeared herself in the hearts of her classmates. Always smiling, always willing to help, for these reasons and because of her sweet personality the whole class joins in saying good luck and may everything in life be as easy for you as Math.

:: :: ::

BENJAMIN HUGER

Secretary Class B '28; Sergeant-at-Arms '27; Senior Play '30.

"An air of good humor always surrounds him."

Among that faithful Class of '30 stands one of the most distinguished gentlemen of I. H. S., Mr. Huger. "Benny's" kind personality and winning ways will be greatly missed by us all. We all wish you the best of luck in V. M. I.

:: :: ::

ISOBEL PULLEN

Critic English Club '27, '28; Chorus '25, '26, '28; Hall of Fame '27, '30; Senior Play '30.

"But still her tongue ran on, the less of weight it bore with greater care."

Isobel has gained great popularity among her classmates through her wit. For the last four years she has been a member of the Hall of Fame. This year she was outstanding in the Class Play as "Mooney." Isobel expects to enter College in the fall where we all hope she meets with success.

:: :: ::

LOUISE FAUBER

Secretary Class '25; Chorus '26, '28; Senior Play '29.

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

"Pat's" ready smile and sunny disposition have made her one of the most likable girls in L. H. S. In addition to her ability to make friends she has talent along histrionic lines, as was shown by her portrayal of "Mrs. Jane Kinney" in the "Country Cousin." Good luck, Louise, and may you find much success at Richmond Medical, your next adventure.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

September 9, 1926, was not regarded as an eventful day in L. H. S. until we proved by our record in all phases of activities that it was an event when the present Seniors first entered the sacred portals of the Anne Smith Academy.

Under the kindly and maternal guidance of Mrs. Tardy, we established several high ideals which we have endeavored to carry out. The happy-go-lucky spirit of our class preeminent from the beginning, did not keep us from giving the best that was in us when called upon by the school for any favor.

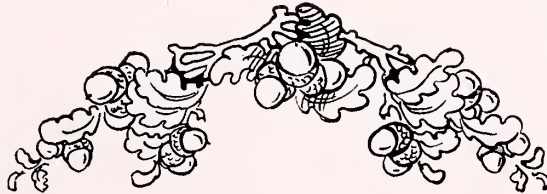

In our Sophomore year we planted a class tree, Pluto by name. The tree was named according to our reputation for that year.

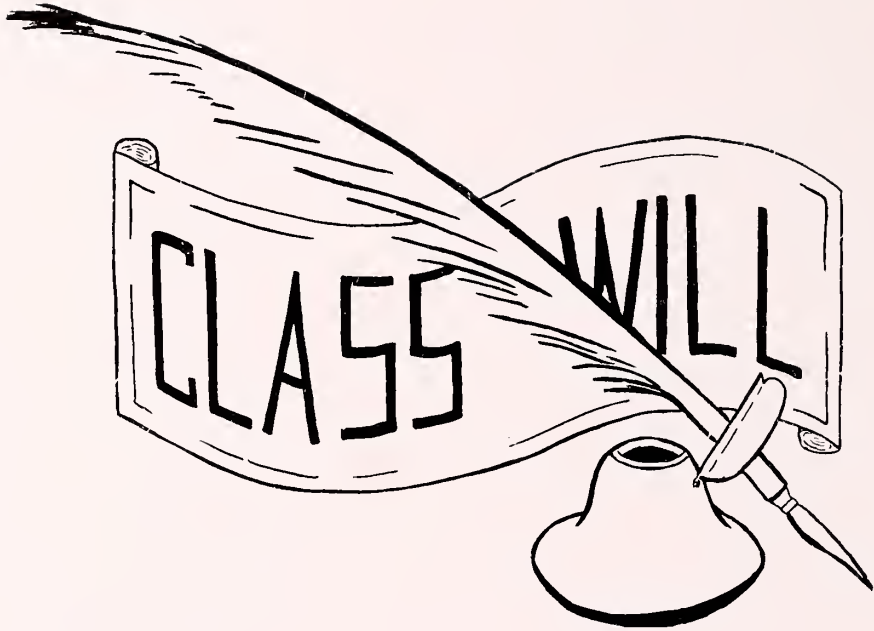

Our class has had its finger in the pie in all phases of school activities. Each year we were called upon by the Crystal and Echo staffs. This year under the editorship of Julia Desha the Echo has been very successful.

We have had stars in all the athletics. The football team of 1929 experienced one of the most successful seasons in the history of the school under the captaincy of Charlie Straub. For the first time since the introduction of girls' basketball, the team, under the leadership of Frances Morris, carried off the entire honors of the basketball season.

The versatility of the Senior Class was proved by the selection of the entire cast of the Senior play from its members.

Farewell to L. H. S. and all the good times we have had within its eight acres.

We, the bane of Mrs. Tardy's existence, the despair of Mr. Waddell's heart, the cause of the resignation of many teachers, without doubt the "brightest" class to ever be set loose upon the all unsuspecting world, upon shaking the sacred dust of L. H. S. forever from our heels, do ordain and establish this last Will and Testament.

CLAUSE I.

To Professor Harrington Waddell, we hereby bequeath all the coal left over after turning off the heat at eleven o'clock on Friday.

To Kenneth Ashby Thompson, we bequeath a package of gum for the girls.

To Mrs. Tardy, we hope to leave another Freshman Class as brilliant as we were.

To Mrs. Boykin, we give our best wishes.

To Miss Owen, we hereby bequeath a few inches.

To Miss Sieg, we gladly leave the prospects for a class in the future which will carry itself with the dignity befitting a Senior of L. H. S.

To Miss Moore, we will the ability to tell a good story once only.

To Miss Varina Elliott, we leave some life.

CLAUSE II.

I, Woodrow Barger, hereby bequeath my pull with Miss Moore to anyone who needs it.

We, Bradley Tyree and Charlie Straub, leave our athletic ability to the Vinsons.

I, Betty Davidson, leave a copy of the 18 day diet to Lucia Desha.

I, Margaret Moreland, will my mathematical ability to Kenny.

I, Gatewood Dunlap, leave the remains of the "Ford" to be used as a school bus.

I, Isabelle Donald, hereby bestow my "ego" on Thelma Zimmerman.

I, Louise Fauber, will my hopes for a speedy graduation to Tammy Corse.

I, Isobel Pullen, bequeath by loquaciousness to Agnes Pultz.

I, Rada Moore, leave my sunny disposition to Mary Lyle.

I, Templeton Fauber, bequeath my "man-of-the-world airs" to Kenneth Harrison.

I, Oliver Gillock, leave my highly developed sense of smell for the smoking sinners to the Executive Committee.

I, Laura Lackey, hereby will my inexhaustible supply of wise cracks to Homer Hughes.

We, Mildred Nicely and Ressie Irvin, give our gentle natures to Gladys Brown.

I, Alice Steidtman, leave the "Crystal" to whomever wants it.

I, Coburn Black, hereby will my ability to cause a disturbance in class to Tommy Corse.

I, Ben Huger, bequeath my freckles to "little Gillock."

I, Hunter McClung, leave my military posture to Martha Dunlap.

We, Frances Morris and Julia Desha, graciously bestow our I.Q.'s (intelligence quotients) upon anyone who can find them.

CLAUSE III.

To the Juniors, we leave the prospects of "Senior Privileges."

To the Sophomores, we will our dignity. (?)

To the Freshmen, we gladly bequeath some school spirit.

BRADLEY TYREE, President

The Student Government of the LEXINGTON HIGH SCHOOL

The Honor System, under the able leadership of Bradley Tyree, has, from all aspects, been very successful. A higher standard has been set by the Executive Committee and although it has had disagreeable tasks to perform, it is hoped that their decisions have been for the betterment of the Lexington High School.

It may be truthfully said that up to this year a feeling of real interest has been lacking towards the work of the System. The laws of the body had not been carefully observed and enforced, and although little improvement has taken place, the Honor System that our school can be proud of is seen for the future. Others will take up the work where we have left it and to them will be intrusted the better Honor System.

Student Government means not only the rules of the Committee, but more the rules of the students themselves. The Committee is merely a medium through which the students can work, and unless the students hold up their end of the bargain, it will decline in power and efficiency. Thus, it is the duty of every student to uphold the laws and clauses of the Constitution for which it stands. As soon as the student fails to do his part in the government he becomes a detriment to the working of the System. The influence of one person may make or break an Honor System and the only way that a greater Honor System can be created in the Lexington High School is through more whole-hearted cooperation on the part of every boy and girl in school. The old saying, "Together we stand, divided we fall," fits adequately into the situation.

Student Government in all phases of school administration is being carried on by many high schools. It adds unlimited experience to the students. The presidents of such an organization has a real burden on his shoulders and unless every pupil cooperates such a scheme is impossible. Just as our country has fought for its political independence and realized the value of its victory, so can the students of every school realize the independence of complete student government.

The Class of '30 has striven toward a higher goal in Student Government. May our desire of looking back upon L. H. S. and finding a perfect Honor System be answered. Thus the Class of '30 leaves the Honor System of the future in the hands of our fellow students.

VARIOUS CONTESTS ARE CONDUCTED IN SCHOOL

The students of Lexington High School have been given the opportunity to participate in three contests this spring. The first is an essay on "Thrift," sponsored by the Woman's Club of Lexington, with fifteen dollars in prizes given by the local bank. The students of all four years of English are compelled to submit papers, the best from each class being sent to the judges. There are two first prizes of five dollars each to the boy and girl submitting the best essays and second prizes of two dollars and a half to the girl and boy with the next best.

The second contest is under the auspices of the Woman's Club on "The Kind of Home Surroundings I Like Best" with a prize of ten dollars. The best two or three papers entered, are judged and the prize awarded and then sent in to the state contest. Those entering this contest do not have to submit work in the first. From general reports it seems that only a small group are interested in this subject. There are certain rules to be obeyed in this contest and those interested can obtain their information from the English teachers.

The third project is sponsored by the League of Nations Association. This is an organization, with headquarters in New York City which is interested in educating high school students on the subject of the League. Any high school in the country is permitted to send for the text book "A Ten Year Review of the League of Nations," published by the Secretariat of the League. After preparing for it, uniform examinations are sent out and taken by the students on the 17th of March. Of the papers submitted in each school, two are selected and sent to National Headquarters.

The Junior History class voted to enter the contest and are hard at work preparing for the examination. Miss Moore and a committee of teachers will select the leading papers and forward them to the National contest.

HALL OF FAME IS SELECTED

It is one of the sacred traditions of The Crystal that it have a "Hall of Fame." Through the years, the niches have been changed and altered, but every year the students of L. H. S. have, on an appointed day, voted for the people best qualified to fill them. This year the vote was taken on the 12th of February. Slips, printed by Mr. Thompson, were given to the students and teachers and filled in by them at recess.

The outcome of the vote is supposed to be kept secret until The Crystal comes out. Several of the results have been rumored around school, however. Among them are Margaret Anne Moreland as the prettiest girl and Zan Campbell as the most irresistible boy. It is reported that the most popular boy is Jack Zimmerman, the most athletic girl, Frances Morris, and that Isabelle Donald and Aubrey Foltz are the two most egotistical students.

COLONEL MOSELY SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

On Friday 14th, Colonel Mosely, instructor of languages at the Virginia Military Institute spoke to the students of the high school. His subject was the "Importance of Social History." It is not how many battles Caesar or Napoleon won, but what they wore and how they acted, which is the most important thing to learn. It is not the blood and thunder which should be stressed, but the social elements during that time of blood and thunder.

Colonel Mosely stated that history is changed by social facts. He told us of a document written by Charlemagne in three different languages, French, German, and Latin. This changed the whole course of language. We cannot avoid the historical elements back of us. Things which we make or do today are caused by historical social facts. One important person does a thing, and everyone follows him.

Colonel Mosely expressed the wish that instead of learning so many dates, we would mix art with our studies.

SOPHOMORE CLASS WILL ALSO GIVE PRODUCTION

RALPH FAUBER

There will be two plays given at Lexington High this year. Beside the usual Senior play, the Sophomores will present one in April. This play is a three act one by the name of "Hands Up" secured by arrangement with Samuel French of New York. It is the story of a newly-rich family who are interested in social uplift work. Helen, the eldest daughter, hires a secretary from the masses, who proves to need a great deal of polishing. The father is interested in an invention which requires frequent trips to a mountain cabin. Sarah, the little sister, is a cheer leader at Spencer School. You must see the play to know the rest of the story. The cast will soon be picked by members of the faculty.

GIRLS BASKETBALL IS COMING UP

On January 7th we journeyed to Harrisonburg to meet a team with a widely known reputation. This was a fast, snappy game, and although defeated, we feel proud of our team for their fairness and clean basketball, and in holding such a team to the score of 24 to 18.

Brownburg played us here on January 13th. This game was ours from the start as our team seemed up to the top notch while the Brownburg girls didn't wake up until the last few minutes of the game. The final score was Brownburg 14, Lexington 32.

On January 21 we played Southern Seminary in Buena Vista. Here we met a superior team who defeated us 31 to 9.

February 4th we met Buchanan on their home court. This game was marked by rough playing throughout and we lost 24 to 13.

With five sure games scheduled and possibly more we hope to bring in more victories.

The team has made a good showing so far this year. In the games since Christmas, Lackey has scored 29 points and Zimmerman 41. Special mention should be made of our guards. The centers have been playing a moderate game.

Mrs. Ebert, our coach, deserves the thanks of the school as well as the team for her untiring efforts.

Mention should be made of the fact that every girl on the squad passed all her required work last term. This is rather opposed to the old belief that spending so much time on athletics would be sure to bring down ones academic standing. We are glad to see the girls have no one track minds.

GIRLS SWAMP SOUTHERN SEMINARY

Our L. H. S. girl's downed Southern Seminary 24 to 8 in a fast game played on Lexington's court on February 11. Special note should be made of the score in view of the fact that the visitors got the tip-off every time.

After the first half, the Lexington girls opened up a fast passing attack which proved fatal to the Seminary girls. Zimmerman scored 21 points for her team while special credit goes to the guards and centers for their excellent pass work and fast playing. Buchanan and Soden scored two field goals each for the visitors.

The line-up is as follows:

Lexington	Southern Sem.
Lackey	R. F. Stump
Zimmerman	L. F. Whitaker
Swink	J. C. Soden (C)
Blain	S. C. Belner
Thompson	R. F. Weldon
Morris, F. (C)	L. F. Buchanan

Substitutes: Lexington, Deaver, Morris, M. Seminary, Warren.
Referee—Neighte (Seminary).
Umpire—Riley.

SENIORS ARE SOON TO PRESENT ANNUAL PLAY

It is a tradition in L. H. S. for the Seniors to present a Spring play. The Senior Class of 1930 is not to be outdone by previous classes.

Various plays are being considered at present, the ones most in favor seeming to be "Cupid Scores a Touchdown," "Anne What's-her-name," "Mr. Pep," and "The New Co-ed." All four are attractive, being very humorous. One of these will be chosen by the Class to be presented.

The Senior Class play is given every year to provide funds for the Chrystal. Unless the play is a success it will not be possible to publish the book this year. For the success of the play the support of the entire school is necessary.

The cast will be taken almost entirely from the Senior Class. Some of the minor parts, however, will be chosen from the other rooms. Miss Seig will have general supervision over the play, other members of the faculty aiding in its production.

Everybody wants a Chrystal, so remember that the Chrystal terminates upon the success of the Senior play. In other words, the fate of the Chrystal is in your hands.

Although the date has not been definitely settled, it is hoped that it will take place around the fifteenth of March,

GOATRANCHERS DOWN SOUTH BOSTON, 16-13

On Saturday, February 8, L. H. S. wound up the three day trip by defeating the strong South Boston quintet, 16 to 13. Lexington took the lead in the first few minutes of play, and maintained it throughout the game. South Boston threatened in the final minutes of the game with a six point rally, which brought them within one point of a tie. The charge was stopped at this point, however. Captain Zimmerman made good two out of four times from the charity line, which increased Lexington's lead by three points, just as the whistle blew. He was high point man, with a total of eight points.

The line-up:

L. H. S.	South Boston
Foltz	R. F. Strickland
Moore	L. F. King
Varner	L. F. Collins
Formwalt, H.	C. Watkins
Straub	R. G. Holt
Zimmerman (c)	L. G. Farly
Campbell	L. C. Goshey

L. H. S. vs. V. E. S.

On February 6, the first game of the three day trip was lost to the Virginia Episcopal School of Lynchburg by 33 to 9. This was the worst defeat that the team had received up to this time. L. H. S. scored first but V. E. S. came in and was never headed. The opponents flashed a powerful offense and an airtight defense, which the locals could not penetrate. Captain Zimmerman played an unusually pretty game.

L. H. S. vs. D. M. I.

On the seventh they lost a hard fought game to Danville Military Institute by the score of 29 to 16. The second half was close until about two minutes were left to play. D. M. I. went on a spree and scored enough points to give them a substantial lead. H. Formwalt was high point man for L. H. S.

SCHEDULE IS UNKNOWN

The state requires high schools to run a hundred and eighty days each year. To make up part of the lost time, we have already gone to school on the 8th and 15th of this month; March the 1st will be the third and last extra day.

It has not yet been decided as to whether Good Friday or Easter Monday will be our Easter holiday.

Final examinations begin on May 26th and the schedule will probably be similar to the one carried out for midterms. Memorial day, May 30th, will be a holiday and the graduation exercises will be on the following night.

FOOTBALL 1930

Facing the longest and hardest schedule ever attempted at L. H. S., the "Goatranchers" reported for practice on September 9. With 35 candidates, including seven letter men, prospects looked bright from the start.

In the first game with Buena Vista the local boys came out on the long of a 7 to 6 score. Buena Vista scored in the first quarter, but failed to make the extra point. In the third quarter the locals pushed across a touchdown. Zimmerman hit the line for the extra point, which proved to be the margin of victory.

The next game with the A. M. A. "Tigers" proved to be an easy one, which we won 35 to 0.

Then came Harrisonburg, rated as one of the best teams in the state. They took the short end of a 7 to 6 score in a game which was hard fought from start to finish. Everyone for the locals played an exceptionally good game.

The next encounter with Staunton was a thriller. In the third quarter Staunton pushed across a touchdown, but failed to make the extra point. In the last two minutes of play Straub tackled a Staunton back, who dropped the ball. Zimmerman caught it before it touched the ground and raced for a touchdown. The extra point was made, but due to an argument with the officials the game was forfeited to Lexington, 1 to 0.

We met our first defeat at the hands of the Salem eleven. The "Goat-ranchers" were unable to solve the passing attacks of the visitors, and when the final whistle blew the score was 19 to 0.

In the next game we were defeated by the close score of 7 to 6. Although we took the short end of this score we felt sure that Vinton was an inferior team compared to Harrisonburg.

We journeyed up the valley to meet Strassburg, where they were overwhelmed by the score of 67 to 0. This is the largest score a L. H. S. team has ever chalked up.

The final game was with Covington, whom we defeated 12 to 0. The only time they ever threatened was in the third quarter when their quarterback intercepted a pass and raced 70 yards before he was brought down by a Lexington tackler. Captain Straub and Fullback Tyree played their last game for L. H. S.

This was the most successful season in the history of the school. Besides winning the Shenandoah Valley Championship, we amassed a total of 142 points to our opponent's 38. Much of this credit should go to Captain Ramey of V. M. I., who coached us. Prospects for next year look exceptionally bright as we lose only two men by graduation.

BASKETBALL 1930

When the first practice was called there appeared about thirty candidates for the team, including four letter men.

We began the season by easily defeating Natural Bridge 41 to 20.

In the following game with Fairfield we came out on the long end of a 43 to 24 score.

Our encounter with Lynchburg proved to be a real test. The game was exciting from start to finish, the lead changing hands several times. When the final whistle blew the score stood 15 to 14 in favor of Lynchburg.

We started off in the right way after the holidays by trimming Harrisonburg 20 to 16.

The next game with Clifton Forge was easily won by the locals with a score of 45 to 15.

Buchanan defeated Lexington High by the close score of 25 to 20.

The following game with Covington was a fast one. The Covington boys could not solve the fast passing game of the locals, who came out victorious in a 39 to 23 score.

The game with Fishburn Military School was a close one, as is shown by the score. In the final two minutes of play a Fishburn player shot a goal which won the game 21 to 20.

In the first game on our three day trip we were defeated by Virginia Episcopal School 33 to 9. After a tiresome ride over the mountains and no time to rest before the game, we could not keep up with the V. E. S. boys.

In the next encounter with D. M. I. Lexington showed a different brand of ball. An avalanche of baskets by Gable in the last few minutes of the game put us on the short end of a 29 to 16 score.

Playing the best game of the season, we won our last game on the trip by defeating South Boston 16 to 13.

We were completely off form in the next game when Salem swamped us by a score of 34 to 14.

Covington also trimmed us 22 to 18.

However, we were not to be daunted, so we trounced Clifton Forge to the tune of 19 to 13. The "Mountaineers" showed a great improvement since the last game with them.

Waynesboro came out victorious with a score of 23 to 11.

The next game with Harrisonburg proved a thriller. It took the boys from up the Valley three extra periods to defeat us 25 to 23.

We were defeated at Blacksburg by Buchanan 22 to 6.

In our first game in the W. & L. tournament Lynchburg came out victorious 34 to 22.

Although we did not win so many games, the season as a whole was very good. It was the hardest schedule ever undertaken at L. H. S. We appreciate the efforts of Captain Ramey to put a good team on the floor.

BASEBALL

With the return of seven men who have played regularly during their high school careers, prospects for baseball are bright. Those returning are Tyree, Straub, A. Campbell, Swink, Dale, Moore and Gillespie.

The failure of Captain Spencer Bruce to return to school has caused Coach Ramey some worry. Straub, Gillespie, Hickman, and Formwalt will probably see service on the mound this year.

New men who are expected to see service before the season is over are Flint, T. Campbell, E. Deaver, Pillar, H. Formwalt, W. Formwalt, Lyons, Halstead, Dodson, Hickman and Travis.

Oliver Gillock is manager of the team this year. He and his assistants are daily chasing the balls which are knocked over the bank and into the creek.

Games have been scheduled with Vinton, Buena Vista, Harrisonburg, Clifton Forge, Covington and several other teams.

RESUME OF THE SEASON

Basketball practice for the girls began early this year. Much work had to be done because only one letterman was available. Lexington girls met Buena Vista there for their first game. The weather at zero and having to play in a building with no heat handicapped our girls. The score ended 25-16 in favor of Buena Vista. Lackey of Lexington was high scorer with 12 points.

A few weeks later Buena Vista visited us here. This time the game ended 18-10 in Lexington's favor.

On December 13, we played Natural Bridge, defeating them 23-18.

In January we took our first long trip, journeying to Harrisonburg to meet a well known team. The game was fast and clean. Our girls played a good game, but were a little outclassed. Harrisonburg won 29-18.

We played Brownsburg Jan. 13, here. The visitors did not wake up until the last quarter, making 11 of their 14 points then. Lexington won 32-14.

Next we played Southern Seminary there. We were defeated 31-9.

Our next encounter, with Buchanan there, was marred by roughness. The game ended 24-13, Buchanan.

On February 11, we met Southern Seminary for the second game on our own home floor. Our team was too much for the Seminary, and we won 24-8. Zimmerman scored 21 of these points for her team.

We met Buchanan on our home floor. This was a close game—first one a goal ahead, then the other, until the last minute when Buchanan rallied to a three point lead. The final score was 26-23.

Our last game was with Harrison here. This was a good fast game. Lexington was leading 17-16 at the half, but Harrisonburg's forwards set a pace in the last quarter which was too much for the guards. Deaver was our outstanding player of this game.

Credit should go to our guards for their excellent playing throughout the year.

Taking into account the hard games on our schedule, and since we won 40% of them we consider the season a real successful one. We amassed a score of 201 points to that of 218 of our opponents.

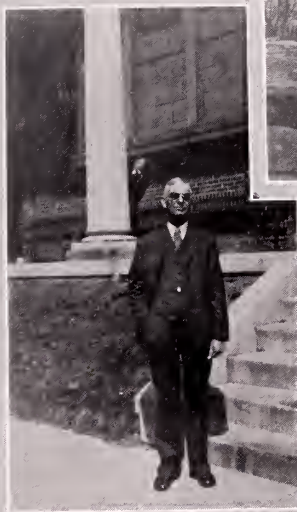

We wish to express our gratitude to Mrs. Ebert, our coach, for her interest and efforts in our behalf.

GATEWOOD'S FORD

Aye, tear her battered license down,

Long has it decked her gear

And many a cop has cursed to see

That speeding Lizzie's rear.

Within it honked a squawky horn

And burst the engine's roar.

The carry-all of the road

Shall tear at fifteen miles no more.

Her frame, so battered up with bumps

And countless scars and dents,

The relics of her overturns

And other accidents.

No more shall feel the burning road

Nor turn on half a wheel.

The guardian of the law shall check

That ardent speeder's zeal.

Oh, better that her battered hulk

Should grace the rusty heap.

Her rattle and her ruthless honk

Should sink at last to sleep.
